

U.S. History 8

The Winds of Change

? Explain in more detail how Capitalism led to the Industrial Revolution. _____

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION—When goods that were once made by _____ were now made by _____. The Industrial Revolution began in _____.

Early Inventions

The spinning _____, invented by James Hargreaves, made it easier to spin _____.

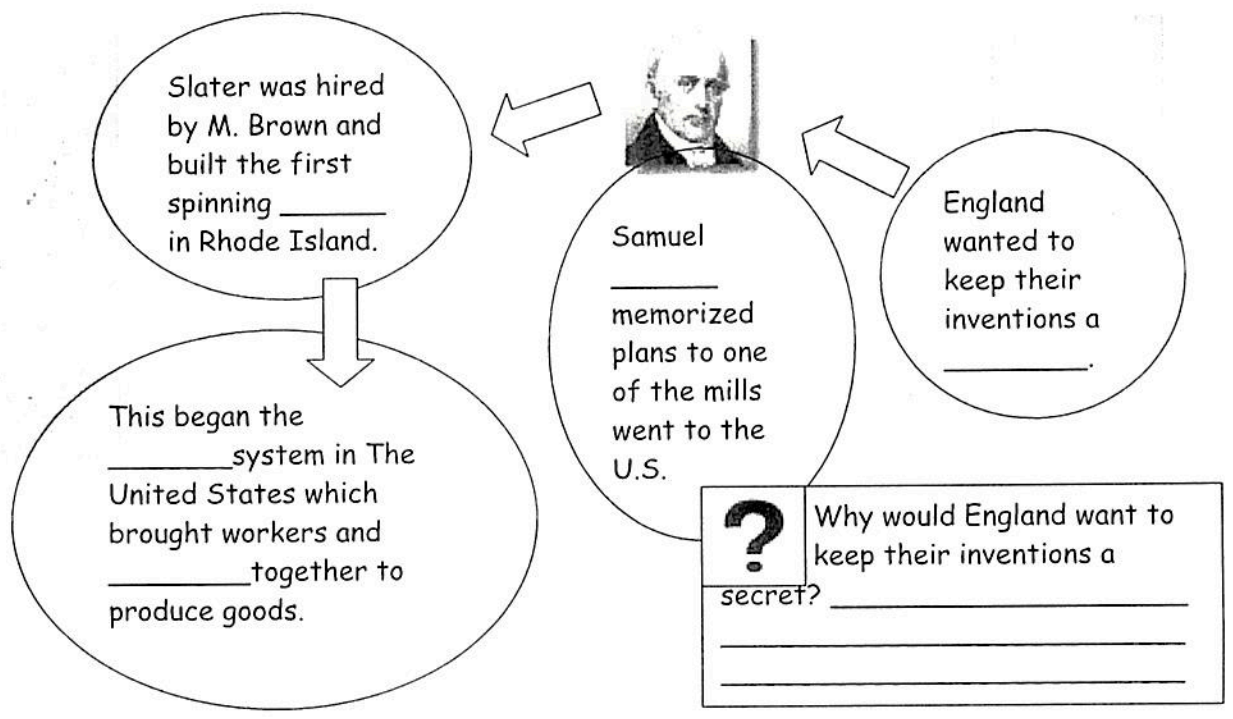

Richard Arkwright invented the water _____ which used fast moving _____ to spin thread faster.

Edmund Cartwright invented the water powered _____. It wove cloth 200 times faster but the mill must be located on _____.

Revolution Comes to America

Eli Whitney

Eli _____ invented the _____ to clean the cotton of its seeds.

Whitney also created a way to make parts that were exactly alike by machine. This was known as _____ parts.

The cotton gin could do the work of _____ people with only one worker.

Before this it took _____ many hours to clean cotton.

? How would the invention of the cotton gin actually increase slavery? _____

Now when something broke, it wouldn't have to be replaced by hand.

This led to _____ production—manufacture of goods in _____ amounts.