

Which branch makes it GO? Which branch can STOP it?

Place an E (Executive Branch), an L (Legislative Branch), or a J (Judicial Branch) in the blanks, indicating which branch of government can make an action GO (left blank) and which branch can STOP an action (right blank). Use 3 Branches + Checks + Balances notes.

1. A bill is passed that says presidents cannot own ranches in Texas. _____
2. Michael Jordan is appointed ambassador to Mexico. _____
3. A treaty is made with the first colony established on Mars. _____
4. A law is passed saying that children over ten can vote. _____
5. A law allowing ten-year-olds to vote is declared unconstitutional. _____
6. The president writes an order declaring that since he is such a good president, he should serve three full terms. _____
7. A bill is passed that says children should go to school half a day on Saturdays. _____
8. A law is vetoed that says presidents cannot own ranches in Texas. _____
9. The Commander-in-Chief decides that members of the U.S. Army do not have enough doughnuts, so he takes over all the Krispy Kreme doughnut shops in Washington D.C. _____
10. Miley Cyrus is appointed as a federal judge. _____